

What is Cooperative Housing?

Cooperative housing combines the advantages of home ownership with the convenience of community living and joint ownership of the property. The key to our success is democracy in action. Members have equal voting status in electing a Board of Directors. The Board decides all policy and budget matters and determines the level of oversight, accounting and legal expertise that is required.